Spring 2022

HIST 122-003 (MWF 9:05-9:55) STRONG 401

HST 122-005 (MWF 10:10-11:00) STRONG 401

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. John Gram

EMAIL: JohnRGram@MissouriState.edu

PHONE: 417-836-5378 (office)

OFFICE: Strong 436

OFFICE HOURS: MWF 11:30-1:30 (or by appt)

If you communicate with me through email, you MUST use your MSU email. This is MSU's policy, not mine.

Email is ALWAYS the best way to reach me. I usually stop checking my email around 6pm on weekdays; I check it rarely on weekends. During the week, I respond to all emails within 24 hours (usually much sooner). On the weekends or during holiday breaks, it may take 48 hours or longer. If I have not responded to an email (during the week) within 24 hours, please email me again. It's not nagging.

Also, if you discuss something with me right after class, please always send a follow up email!

A FEW NOTES ON EMAIL ETIQUETTE

- 1) Your email should include a proper citation (Hello Dr. Gram, Dear Dr. Gram, etc), plus your class AND section number (so I can more quickly answer your question).
  - 2) You should always check the syllabus, the announcements folder on Blackboard, and assignment prompts to make sure that your question has not already been answered somewhere else.
  - 3) Please do not ask me in class or email me to ask when assignments will be graded. I will always email the entire class when I am done grading an assignment.

COVID PROTOCOLS

The mask mandate for the classroom is still in place for now. The university will reevaluate the mandate later this Spring. This means that you must properly wear a mask at all times during class. If you refuse to do so, you will be required to leave; you will not be allowed to return to class without agreeing to comply with the mask mandate.

If you are Covid positive or have Covid-like symptoms, do NOT come to class. Get yourself tested as quickly as you can. Email me so that I know why you are not in class. While you are in quarantine, keep up with class readings and assignments. You will need to get notes from a classmate upon your return. I do not strictly lecture from notes, so I do not have notes to share with you.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF OUR COURSE HAS TO GO ONLINE?

There are several reasons our course may have to go online at some point this semester. It is my intention to keep this course seated as much as possible. However, a significant number of students missing class because of Covid, a change in university policy, or even an extended illness for myself may require a change to online for a limited period of time.

If we have to go online we will NOT have live classes. If we have to go virtual, it will mean that there may suddenly be many more changes to your life: work schedule, child care, times of the day that you have computer and internet access, etc. Therefore, I do not believe it is reasonable to assume that you will always be free at the time our class meets now. Instead, I will release course work a week at a time for you to complete during the week at your own pace.

This means that you WILL need to have consistent internet access. We will continue to submit assignments through blackboard, and blackboard is also how I will deliver course material to you. That said, I will try to make any internet requirement for the course as low-tech as possible.

Assignment due dates and details MAY change. Any changes would be designed to make the course easier to complete in the online format. I would not make the course harder, nor would I add additional work to just keep you “busy.” Due dates would not be moved up; if they changed, it would only be to give you more time to complete assignments, if I think that is necessary.

Office hours MAY change, but I will DEFINITELY still have them. I will continue to make myself accessible to you through the week, most likely through Zoom appointments. My “virtual office hours” may not be the same as those at the beginning of the semester, but I will make sure that I am available to you the same number of hours throughout the week.

A NOTE ABOUT ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

I do not tolerate cheating in my course. The most common forms of cheating I see are: using prohibited sources on assignments, copying other students' assignments, and plagiarism – usually, but not always, in the form of representing someone else's work or ideas as your own. This list is not exhaustive, and you are responsible for being familiar with MSU's Academic Dishonesty Policy (see the "University Policies" on Blackboard).

You are all adults now, and I will hold you to adult standards. If I suspect academic dishonesty has occurred, I will certainly give you a chance to explain your side. However, if I still believe cheating has occurred, I will report it to the university -- as I am required to do. You will most likely automatically receive a zero on any assignment where I believe cheating took place. You will have no opportunity to make up the work or improve that grade. If it is a particularly egregious example of cheating, the first time you are caught may have additional consequences. If you are caught cheating a second time, you will most likely automatically fail the course – probably with an XF (yes, this has happened multiple times before). The University provides you an opportunity to protest an accusation of academic dishonesty. Hopefully, I will never have a need to discuss this process with any of you, but we will certainly go over this as part of discussing any alleged incident of cheating.

MANDATORY ATTENDANCE POLICY:

[Please note that required quarantining will be an exception to this policy.]

Attendance in this course is mandatory. Each day I will circulate a sign-in sheet, starting at the beginning of class. It is your responsibility to make sure you sign the sheet to demonstrate your attendance. If there is no signature, I will count you as absent. Please note that signing for someone else will be viewed as an act of academic dishonesty and disciplined as such.

You may miss up to THREE (3) class periods with no penalty. Absences for participating in school-sanctioned activities (e.g. travel for a club or athletic event) do NOT count toward these three. Keep in mind that missing three days is the equivalent of a week of class! In other words, this is a pretty generous policy. Your THREE (3) allowed absences include unexcused AND excused absences. An absence is an absence is an absence.

Because I do not make any distinction regarding why you have missed, you do not need to provide any sort of documentation for class absences – the exception being school-sanctioned absences or Covid-related quarantines. It also means, though, that the fourth absence gets a penalty, period – even if you think it might qualify as an excused absence. So, save these absences for true sickness or emergencies! Certainly, if there are extraordinary circumstances involved, such as a multi-week hospital stay, we can discuss how that might affect enforcement of this policy and what sort of documentation might be needed at that point.

I will deduct 15 points from your final grade (out of 700 total points in the course) for each absence after the third – again, regardless of why you missed from the fifth absence onward. Don't burn through your absences recklessly!

Just because you have these absences available doesn't mean you have to use them! Regular attendance is both expected and highly advised. Each lecture we will cover some material not covered by the textbook, yet you will still be responsible for this material on the exams. Thus, regular attendance is crucial for success in this course.

If you miss class, you need to get notes from a classmate.

Course Description:

In this course, we will examine the major social, economic, political, and cultural developments in US history following the Civil War. We'll examine how Americans grappled with the promises and perils of the Second Industrial Revolution. We'll watch as the United States completes its conquest of the American West, then looks outward to ponder what sort of role it should have in the larger world. We'll study how the United States emerged from a crushing international depression and two world wars to become a global power. We'll see America struggle to survive in and shape a new world constantly living under the threat of nuclear war, and examine how Americans responded to the challenges of the Cold War era--both internationally and on the home front. Finally, we'll follow the United States as it emerges into a new post-Cold war world, and we'll watch Americans strive to find a new understanding of who they are and what America should be.

General Education Learning Outcomes:

Successful completion of HIST 122 should help students to:

- 1) Identify the rights and responsibilities they have in their own communities and the broader society
- 2) Recognize the ways in which they can exercise their rights and responsibilities
- 3) Understand, critically examine, and articulate key similarities and differences between their own cultural practices and perspectives and those of other cultures, past and present

4) Analyze the role that different languages, cultures, institutions, and beliefs have in shaping individual and collective behavior.

Explanation of Assignments:

EXAMS (200 pts total; 100 pts each)

Twice this semester we will have a take home essay exam. You will receive the prompt around a week before it is due.

Exam 1 Due Date	Friday, March 11 by 11:59pm
Exam 2 Due Date	Friday, April 29 by 11:59pm

WORKSHOP ASSIGNMENTS (200 pts total; 50 pts each)

Many Fridays this semester we will do a history workshop project together during class. Four times this semester you will complete an assignment on your own based on what we learned in the workshop. You will get the exact instructions for each workshop assignment closer to time.

Evaluating Primary Sources	Friday, February 4 by 11:59pm
Evaluating Secondary Sources	Friday, February 18 by 11:59pm
Evaluating Cause and Effect	Friday, February 25 by 11:59pm
Evaluating Continuity and Change Over Time	Monday, April 18 by 11:59pm

FINAL PROJECT (300pts total)

Rather than a Final Exam this semester, you will turn in a Final Project. You will create a mock public history presentation that brings together many of the history workshop skills we learn together this semester. More details will be provided in the Final Project prompt.

You will turn in three separate assignments as part of your final project: a topic proposal, a list of sources, and then the final project itself. Details about how to complete the topic proposal and the list of sources will be given closer to time.

Topic Submitted for Approval	Friday, February 11 by 11:59pm
Sources Submitted for Approval	Friday, March 25 by 11:59pm
Final Project Submission	(see Course Schedule for your section's due date)

LATE SUBMISSIONS

You may submit assignments in this course (including the essay exams) up to 24 hours late for a 15% penalty. You may submit them up to 48 hours late for a 30% penalty. No late assignments will be accepted after 48 hours.

The one exception to this policy is the Final Project submission due during Finals Week. Because I must grade a significant number of projects and papers across multiple classes, I cannot let work trickle late over the course of Finals Week.
